4. How a complaint will be dealt with

- 4.1 If you make a complaint, we will aim to;
 - 4.1.1 Acknowledge your complaint within five working days;
 - 4.1.2 resolve your complaint; and
 - 4.1.3 provide a full written response within twenty working days.
- 4.2 Your complaint will be investigated by the designated manager within British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland, or Welsh Triathlon. This manager is responsible for logging and coordinating any investigation or action in relation to your complaint and providing a response. If the manager cannot respond to you within twenty working days due to a more complex investigation, we will let you know.
- 4.3 If you are not satisfied with the response, outcome or the manner in which your complaint has been handled, you can request for your complaint to be reviewed.

This needs to be made within fourteen days of the date of the formal response setting out the reasons for the request.

- 4.4 Your complaint will be reviewed by a manager who was not previously involved and we will aim to provide you with a final response within twenty working days of your request. If we cannot respond to you within this timeframe, we will let you know. They will review the initial complaint, any investigation or enquiries carried out and the formal response provided. Following this, they will provide a final response. Please note that the response provided at this stage will be final there is no further escalation or appeals process.
- 4.5 If a complaint is received by the incorrect national association, for example Welsh Triathlon receiving a complaint in respect of Scotland, the complaint must be forwarded to the correct national association (in this case Triathlon Scotland) and the complainant must be informed that this action has been taken.
- 4.6 Circumstances of where a national association should not handle a complaint and may refer the matter to another National Association or British Triathlon are;
 - 4.6.1 It is a matter relating to the jurisdiction of British Triathlon such as Age Group Triathlon.
 - 4.6.2 It is the complainant or subject of the complaint in question
 - 4.6.3 It is in any way subject to a conflict of interest that may prejudice how it handles any aspect of the complaint.

5. Who can make a complaint?

- 5.1 Anyone, member or non-member, can make a complaint to British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon.

6. Policy coverage

- 6.1 This policy covers all issues relating to services or acts of British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon.
- 6.2 Complaints, relating to the conduct or behaviours of British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon, clubs, coaches, or members where there is an allegation of misconduct should be made using the Disciplinary Policy and Procedures. These can be found on the British Triathlon Website.
- 6.3 Complaints, allegations or concerns about safeguarding should be made by contacting the lead safeguarding officer at either; British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon. Should a complaint be raised to British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon which includes a safeguarding element, these will be managed by the designated lead safeguarding officer for the national association.
- 6.4 British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland and Welsh Triathlon registered clubs, should have their own complaints process and any complaints relating to club or committee disputes within remit of constitution, matters relating to the normal business of clubs or committees, the management of a club, their fees, rules and requirements should be directed to the club to respond to and are not covered by this policy.

- 6.5 Complaints relating to the performance or conduct of British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland and Welsh Triathlon staff should be directed to the HR department at hr@britishtriathlon.org.
- 6.6 A complaint may be referred to a third-party organisation where a complaint is considered to relate to a service that is provided jointly by British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon and a third-party organisation and following consultation with the third-party organisation, it is agreed that they are better placed to respond to the complaint.
- 6.7 A complaint relating to the British Triathlon World Class Programme or Elite Performance Pathway must be dealt with alongside the UK Sport Independence Elements Policy and Procedure.
- 6.8 There are some complaints not covered under this policy, such as:
- 6.8.1 Complaints not related to the sport of triathlon or British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland, or Welsh Triathlon.
 - 6.8.2 Personal disputes not related to the sport of triathlon.
 - 6.8.3 Complaints of a criminal nature which will be passed to the police and then investigated under the disciplinary regulations.
 - 6.8.4 Issues relating to non-permitted events delivered by third parties.
 - 6.8.5 Complaints or appeals in relation to triathlon events and the decisions made by officials, competitions and events held under the jurisdiction of British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon (e.g. sanctions and penalties).
 - 6.8.6 Complaints outside of the jurisdiction of British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland or Welsh Triathlon about partners, suppliers and sponsors and any organisation contracted to work for us.
- 6.9 The timescales in the Complaints Policy will be adhered to wherever possible. British Triathlon and the National Associations recognise that a degree of flexibility may be required when applying timescales. Therefore, if the timescales are not adhered to it will not invalidate the Complaints Policy or process.
- 7. Repeat, unreasonable, and vexatious or aggressive complaints
- 7.1 Where a complainant remains unhappy with the outcome of their complaint, provided process has been followed, we are unable to take any further action. Repeat complaints about the same issue will not alter this.
- 7.2 At times complainants may become unreasonable, and vexatious or aggressive, causing undue stress for staff and volunteers and resulting in a disproportionate use of British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland, and/or Welsh Triathlon resources.
- 7.3 Unreasonable complaints are complaints that, because of the nature of the contact or frequency with which the complaint is pursued, hinder our ability to properly consider the matters at hand or place unwarranted demands on staff time. Unreasonable complaints may be justified grievances pursued in inappropriate ways, or they may be complaints which appear to have no substance, or which have already been fully investigated or responded to.

7.4 Vexatious or aggressive complainants behaviour may include excessive and repeated attempts to contact staff and volunteers, pursuing multiple complaints against the organisation at the same time, making unreasonable demands of staff and volunteers, threats (including those of legal action) against staff/volunteers or the organisation, repeated raising of unreasonable complaints, making multiple complaints to multiple external organisations about British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland and Welsh Triathlon.

7.5 Where a complaint is deemed to be repeat, unreasonable, and vexatious or aggressive or is considered to have no basis or genuine substance, British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland, and Welsh Triathlon reserve the right not to investigate. In extreme cases of vexatious and/or persistent complaints disciplinary action against members and connected participants may be taken.

8. Confidentiality

8.1 All complaints are treated with confidentiality where ever possible.

8.2 We will respect anonymity and where a complainant wishes to make an anonymous complaint, they should be informed that their concern will be recorded and considered. However, it may be difficult for a complaints investigation to proceed without being able to verify who the complainant and who information is being shared with.

8.3 In certain circumstances for example where it is a safeguarding concern and requires referral to statutory agencies, we cannot guarantee that the details of the complaint will remain within British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland, and Welsh Triathlon. Where an allegation is made of a potentially criminal nature, external agencies such as the police must be notified, who may request details of the complaint held.

8.4 In line with data protection guidance we will protect personal or sensitive data during our complaint process and any record which we are required to retain. For more information about how British Triathlon, Triathlon England, Triathlon Scotland, and Welsh Triathlon will use your data, please see our Privacy Policy.
